

Steam memories

Witney Gazette - August 2003

THE Combe Mill Society held an open day, with the main beam engine running, powered by steam from the oldest working boiler in the country. The boiler also provided steam to run three additional engines.

Blacksmiths were working on the forge, while in the upper works turners were using a lathe, driven by belts from a line shafting, driven by the main engine.

Picture:
Andy
Cooper

Order No. 96534